ARE CHARGED WITH HIGH TREASON.

Events Forbode a Renewal of Hostilities in the Transvaal between "Trekkers" and the English.

Incriminating Documents Found on the Prisoners and it is Expected Further Arrests Will Follow-The News Causes Great Excitement.

PRETORIA, Transvaal Republic, May 17 .- The arrest at Johannesburg early Tuesday morning of seven alleged former British officers, named Nicholls, Patterson, Tremlett, Ellis, Freis, Hooper and Mitchell, on the charge of high treason, has caused intense excitement here. The prisoners were brought to Pretoria by special train. After they had been lodged in jail, they were visited by the British diplomatic agent

The arrests were effected by a detective who joined the movement, which, it is asserted, was for the purpose of enrolling men in order to cause an outbreak of rebellion.

Incriminating documents were found on the prisoners, and it is expected that further arrests will be made.

LONDON, May 17 .- The foregoing dispatch probably explains the telegram received by The Argus of Capetown Tuesday, from Pretoria, saying the Transvaal secretary of state confirmed the report that a number of unusual arrests had been made and that it was rumo ed that the prisoners were British officers.

The advices from Johannesburg are also probably connected with a mysterious dispatch received at Johannesburg from Pretoria on May 12, saying a special train fully equipped with Boer artillerymen, guns and searchlight apparatus, was being held in readiness at the capital of the Transvaal. The statement was then declared to be without significance, but Tuesday's news throws a more serious light on the movement, and it is certain there will be a great sensation in London when the news of the arrests becomes generally known.

The afternoon papers Tuesday printed special dispatches from Capetown saying seven men have been arrested at Johannesburg and have been taken to Pretoria. The government of Cape Colony, it further appears, is considering the matter secredy.

The news has caused great excitement throughout South Africa.

The Standard and Diggers' Newsthe Boers' organ in London-has a dispatch from Pretoria which says that warrants were issued Monday evening ted at midnight. The dispatch adds that a plot or rebellion is alleged to have been maturing for four months, and that the accused, who are said to have been engaged by the South African league, had already enlisted 2,000

Cecil Rhodes, the former premier of Cape Colony and resident director in South Africa of the British Chartered South Africa Co., informs a press reporter that he has heard nothing regarding the arrests made at Johannesburg and that he knows nothing about the reason for which they were made.

CAPETOWN, May 17 .- According to advices from Pretoria the charge against the prisoners is that, while staying in the Rand privately, they were really engaged in enlisting men for the purpose of rebellion when they were ready to give the signal.

It is said that the enlistment roster included 2,000, and that a number of incriminating documents were found at the time arrests were made.

TO THE CUBAN SOLDIERS.

Gen. Gomes is Preparing and Will Issue a Manifesto to the Army-Directs the Forces to Disband.

HAVANA, May 17 .- The manifesto which Gen. Maximo Gomez is preparing to issue will not only review his own position as to the payment of the Cuban army, but probably will direct | the forces to disband. Following its publication Gov. Gen. Brooke will issue a modified order eliminating the necessity for the participation of any Cuban commissioner in the distribution from water. of the $3,000,000.

Col. Carlos Cespedes, who is engaged in the supervision of copying the manifesto, declines to give any information as to its contents further than to say that Gomez recounts his faithful labors for Cuba; asserts that he has no ambition other than to free Cuba, and calls upon all loyal Cubans to accept the money given by the United States and for the Philippines with a large cargo to return to work, in order to show by building up the country that they are supplies. She carried no soldiers or citizens in the truest sense.

The governor general regards Gomez as having acted sincerely throughout the question of the distribution to an been forced upon him by the desertion through the bowels. of those generals upon whom he had

Members of the late Cuban military assembly and other discontented persons belonging to the new revolutionary club styled the Veterans' association met at Cerro and indulged in a prolonged debate on the question of the Cuban troops surrendering their McKenzie Augusta, Ga., Tuesday. This trusting the arms to the brigade chiefs or Cuban municipalities. Another group was opposed altogether to surrendering the arms, saying it might be necessary to "use them against American pretensions."

The meeting was presided over by Gen. Jose Lacret and was attended by Sanguily, Andrade, Vidal and Juan Gomez Telegrams from all the provinces were read, opposing giving up the arms. The so-called weakness of Gen. Maximo Gomez was contrasted with Aguinaldo's "patriotic courage." No decision was reached. During the meeting Col. Miyores proposed to send the following telegram to Santiago:

"General discontent. We refuse to surrender arms. Opinion unanimous.' Gen. Andrade declined to agree to the suggestion, saying it would not be advisable to make such a display of feeling. Instead of the dispatch proposed by Myores the following was

"Reunited. Decided to agree to muster out on the basis of the decree of former assembly. Announced that Brooke will modify his decree. Await to see if satisfactory. Concert with you in final proceedings."

The voting on this dispatch was 59 in favor against 36 opposed.

Such meetings as the one jus at Cerro would be regarded in a less inflammatory community as ominous and outside observers might think Cuba is on the verge of insurrection. Public feeling in Havana is certainly excited, but those whose judgment is worth most consider the agitation to be superficial and to consist merely of phrasings which will never lead to an overt act. Gov. Gen. Brooke will go ahead as inoffensively as possible in the disbursement of the $3,000,000 appropriated for the Cuban troops. This can not begin however until next week. If the Cubans wish to surrender their arms to the municipalities all will be well. The American authorities will raise no objection.
